Youth Cooperation in the Barents Region

BARENTS REGIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL

Tim Andersson, International Secretary
Umeå 25/9 2019
BARENTS REGION POPULATION (2017):

5.2 million
2017: YOUTH POPULATION DISTRIBUTION BY REGION

= 860 THOUSAND AGED 16-29
"In the period between 1990 and 2017, the young population of the Barents Region (aged 16-29) has decreased with more than 500 000."
"The only regions where the number of young people has increased, are Vasterbotten (Sweden) and Northern Ostrobothnia (Finland). These regions host two of the largest universities in the Barents Region."
YOUNG IN BARENTS

BARENTS REGIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL

- Established in 2004
- 15 representatives of their local youth community and one representative from the Working Group of Indigenous Peoples
- Meets twice per year
- The Council elects a board which manages the day to day activities
- Funded jointly by all regions in the Barents Cooperation
- Completely voluntarily
- Main goal: Prevent youth emigration and brain drain of the Barents Region
  Through projects make the region interesting to youth
  Addressing important topics which affects youth in the Region
WHAT WE DO

ANNUAL MEETING (spring)

• The meeting is the highest decision-making body of BRYC
• All the 15 council members gather
• Adopts the action plan and budget for the given year (where to participate/what project to initiate)
• Defines the date, theme and location of the upcoming annual event
• Elects a new board and (every 2nd year) a new chair

ANNUAL EVENT (autumn)

• Gathers around 60-70 participants from 4 Barents countries (aged 18-30)
• Program involves plenary discussions, workshops, as well as social and cultural activities
• 3-4 days
• Held in a new Barents location every year
• Promotes the Barents Region
• Aims: barents friendship, improvement of language skills, inspiration from workshops and fun!
OUR PAST AND FUTURE PROJECTS

• Annual Events hosted annually with a specific theme
• Partners in a wide array of projects Uncapitals, Inversia Media Festival
YOUTH POLICY

• We are the joint voice of youth in the Region
• We are the future of the Region
